The Story Orchestra

FOUR SEASONS IN ONE DAY

Illustrated by Jessica Courtney-Tickle

Create some art work that reflects the sights and sounds of the Four Seasons. Fill each season with images of nature and some of the instruments you can hear too. Use the illustrations and some lines of the poems for inspiration.

Spring

The birds
sing their
happy
song.

Brooks
flow with
a sweet
murmur.

Spring

The
meadow is
rich with
flowers.

The
goatherd
sleeps.

His
faithful
dog barks.

Summer

Languish
under the heat of the burning
summer sun.

The
turtledove
and
goldfinch
sing.

Summer

Suddenly,
the north
wind
appears.

Overhead
lies the
fierce
storm.

Autumn

Celebrate the harvest with
song and
dance.

Autumn

The season
invites many
to enjoy a
sweet slumber.

Winter

Frozen and trembling in
the severe
blast of the
icy wind.

Teeth
chatter in
the cold.

As we run,
we stamp
our feet.

Winter

We walk
on the ice
with slow
steps.

We run on
the ice till it
cracks and
opens.
